About MIM

MIM, Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare, was established on January 1st 2007 as a research institute at Malmö University. It strives to be a vibrant Swedish centre for research on migration, diversity and welfare, while at the same time keep a high international profile.

MIM welcomes international scholars who choose to locate or undertake parts of their research projects in Sweden. The Willy Brandt Guest Professorship is a fully financed research position at MIM which hosts prominent researchers from all over the world.

MIM is directed by Professor Pieter Bevelander and consists of a nucleus of senior and junior researchers, the guest professor and a network of affiliated researchers.

Research

Researchers affiliated with MIM focus on processes of mobility, inclusion and exclusion and its varying expressions in politics, policies, places, institutions as well as people’s everyday lives. Research results are published in books, peer-reviewed journals as well as in our own publication series accessible via our homepage. News about our research is disseminated four times per year via our newsletter.

Networks & Activities

MIM organises workshops and conferences, and is represented in various organizations for migration related research such as the IMISCOE board, the NMR board and the Metropolis steering committee.

MIM contributes to the newly developed PhD programme for studies of Migration, Urbanisation and Societal Changes (MUSA), started in March 2013 at Malmö University.

The weekly Migration Seminar is a cross-disciplinary forum for researchers inside and outside Malmö University, which also attracts policymakers and specialists from outside academia.

Guest Professorship in Memory of Willy Brandt

The Guest Professorship in International Migration and Ethnic Relations (IMER) in Memory of Willy Brandt is a gift to Malmö University financed by the City of Malmö. It was donated to The School of IMER on the occasion of the inauguration of Malmö University on 31 August 1998, and signed by Ilmar Reepalu, Chairman of the Municipal Executive Board. Between 1998 and 2007 the Guest Professorship in Memory of Willy Brandt was placed at the School of IMER and since 2007 has been housed at MIM.

The purpose of the Guest Professorship is to strengthen research at Malmö University in the field of IMER. The City of Malmö sought, via the Guest Professorship, to reinforce contacts with international experts in order to ensure that they would become an integral part of research and teaching in the field of IMER. To this end, an internationally oriented Guest Professorship creates a constant exchange of knowledge and ideas and enhances Malmö University’s academic strength clustered at MIM. During their stays, the Guest Professors share their expertise with a wide audience of academics, students and the interested public in a series of lectures and debates at the university as well as open lectures at Malmö City Library co-organised with Europa Direkt.

Willy Brandt Guest Professors 2018:

Maarten Vink (Fall 2017 and Spring 2018)
Professor of Political Sociology at the Department of Political Science, Maastricht University, the Netherlands. He is Co-Director of the Maastricht Center for Citizenship, Migration and Development (MACIMIDE) and is also a ROA Fellow at the Research Centre for Education and the Labour Market (ROA). Vink is also Co-Director of the Global Citizenship Observatory (GLOBALCIT), a web platform that is part of the Global Governance Programme at the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies at the European University Institute.

Per Mouritsen (Fall 2018)
Per Mouritsen is an Associate Professor of political science at Aarhus University in Denmark. He has participated in many EU-funded initiatives (Emilie, ACCEPT PLURALISM) as well as Scandinavian (ACT, GovCit) and Danish projects on immigrant integration and various aspects of citizenship. He directs the Danish-Swedish Rockwool Foundation project ASSISI on the impact of school governance of diversity on the civic integration and educational attainment of young second-generation immigrants. He has also consulted for Norwegian and Danish ministries and various nongovernmental organizations, and was founding Director of the Center for Journalism Studies at Aarhus University.

24 – 26 October 2018
Refugees, Borders and Membership

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of Malmö University and its recent inauguration as a fully accredited university, Malmö Institute for Studies of Migration, Diversity and Welfare (MIM) is organising a large, international conference on the subject of refugees, borders and membership, which is free to attend. More specifically, the conference will highlight the complex and evolving relationship between refugee migration, the legal and socio-cultural borders between and within states and continents, and questions of membership and belonging.

The conference includes a keynote address by Professor David Miller, Oxford University, and a keynote address by Professor Ellen Kraly, Colgate University, with ensuing panel discussions, and two full days of in-depth workshops on different subjects related to the theme of the conference.

Research projects at MIM

MIM conducts analytical and critical work in various fields of academic research dedicated to migration and integration. Our research is multidisciplinary, pursued in collaboration with international partners, and funded either nationally or by the EU. The research can be classified under the following four themes:

- migration and mobility
- integration of new immigrants
- attitudes and views on international migration and ethnic relations
- education, citizenship and welfare

The centre disseminates evidence-based research to inform policy makers both regionally, nationally and internationally.

Our research is divided between ethnographic and quantitative projects that engage with the lives of migrants and projects that deal with issues such as the representation of migration in media, cultural institutions, and public attitudes. Additionally, we study the causes and effects of migration with regard to both policy and discourse.

Our researchers are engaged in multiple collaborative projects, both locally and internationally, with the aim of increasing understanding of MIM’s focal research areas.

The importance of museums as sites of meetings and development of projects that involve migrants, is highlighted by a UNESCO-IOM initiative. In the context of the current influx of refugees and the changing political climate, there are plans for establishing a democracy- and migration museum in Sweden.

This project aims at producing, testing and disseminating knowledge relevant to the improvement of the Swedish museums’ integration work. Special attention is given to the methods of collaboration between museums, civil society and migrants. The project will involve refugees and reach out to a number of actors in the museum-, cultural- and civil society sector, by the means of a conference, publications, a course, and an educational material package.

MIM working paper series

The MIM Working Papers Series is designed to communicate work in progress that has not been published elsewhere and to disseminate key findings in areas related to the core research themes of MIM. In this area, the series welcomes contributions from various disciplines, different theoretical perspectives and both quantitatively and qualitatively oriented research. The series includes contributions from MIM staff, affiliated researchers at Malmö University and invited authors (who for instance have presented their work at the MIM seminars). The papers are published in Swedish or in English.

MIM Working Papers are only available online and the authors hold exclusive copyright to their work. Readers are invited to discuss the papers in a special commentator field. The views expressed in the MIM Working Papers are those of the independent authors. The editor is Anders Hellström.

A new network based at MIM

HIGHLY SKILLED MIGRANTS RESEARCH NETWORK

The networking of scholars interested in high-skilled migration that started at the occasion of the TRANSMIG workshop at the 13th IMISCOE conference (www.imiscoe.org/news/news-from-members/594-highly-skilled-migrants-a-future-research-agenda-workshop-schedule), is now based at MIM and coordinated by Professor Maja Povrzanović Frykman (contact: maja.frykman@mau.se).

Membership in the network is open to colleagues at all stages of career, who share the interest in highly skilled migrants. It involves inclusion in an e-mailing list, where publication updates, calls for papers and other information directly related to research on highly skilled migrants are shared among the members.

The network so far includes 62 colleagues from 18 countries: UK (12), Sweden (10), Croatia (6), Norway (5), Finland (4), Switzerland (4), Germany (4), Austria (3), The Netherlands (3), Denmark (3), Lithuania (1), Italy (1), Spain (1), Portugal (1), Japan (1), Mexico (1), South Africa (1) and Canada (1).
